MIKE BIGGAR & TERRA SPENCER Present
'Songs of the Season' 2023

Uplifting, heartwarming, hilarious and inspiring, with enough Christmas fun to fill Santa's sleigh! Multi award-winning Singer-Songwriters MIKE BIGGAR (Saint John NB) and TERRA SPENCER (Windsor NS) are on tour this holiday season, joined by the Sugar Plum Boys band with 'SONGS OF THE SEASON' 2023. Performing previously at the Imperial Theatre in Saint John NB to the delight of his hometown crowd, Mike welcomes long time friend and acclaimed artist Terra Spencer to hit the road together, sharing the musical joy of the yuletide all around the East Coast.

SONGS OF THE SEASON evolved from Biggar's ECMA award-winning holiday album THE SEASON. The show features many of his acclaimed, original holiday songs, inspiring carols and standards of the season, all playfully arranged in his noted soulful, bluesy roots styling.

Hailing from Windsor Nova Scotia, Terra Spencer is known for charming audiences with her deft guitar, gospel piano, butterscotch voice and sly humour. She offers a heaping helping of her own seasonal favourites and original holiday music, wrapped in her armchair humour and disarming warmth. Terra has received the Music Nova Scotia 'Folk Recording of the Year' award and nominations from both the ECMA and CFMA. Her song 'Feels Like Home' was named the 2021 Blues & Roots Radio International Song of the Year.

Together the pair join their voices for much-loved holiday duets inspired by the magic of vintage TV Christmas specials of yesteryear. With lots of impromptu fun, hilarious stage banter and Christmas revelry, SONGS OF THE SEASON will deck the halls with holiday smiles and laughter all around!

Check your list twice to be sure you've got 'Songs of the Season' on your holiday calendar! Booking now for 2023!
